

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT for the
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

U.S.A. vs. James William Yost

Docket No. 5:17-CR-44-1BR

Petition for Action on Conditions of Pretrial Release - ADJUDICATED

COMES NOW Eddie J. Smith, Supervising U.S. Probation Officer of the court, presenting an official report upon the conduct of defendant, James William Yost, who was placed under pretrial release supervision by the Honorable W. Earl Britt, sitting in the Court at Raleigh, on the 27th day of February, 2017.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS: The defendant was released on pretrial supervision on February 27, 2017, with a condition that included location monitoring. When the conditions were received by our office, we noticed that the specific program (curfew, home detention, or home incarceration) was not ordered. This officer spoke with the attorneys for the government and defense as well as our Court Services Officer who were present and all reported that it was the intent of the court to allow the defendant to work. It was their understanding that when the defendant was not at work, he should be at home. With this understanding, we are recommending that the conditions of supervision be amended to include home detention with electronic monitoring.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER that the conditions of supervision be amended to include the following:

- Home Detention. You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities approved in advance by the probation officer or supervising officer.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
